Parenting/Family/Youth Culture	December 2	2:05 PM	15:00	Priority Talk

Greg Davis talked to Donna McKinley, the program's youth culture specialist. Donna talked about Knockout, the knockout game, knockout king, bombing, polar-bear, and polar-bear hunting, the names given to assaults in which, purportedly, one or more assailants attempt to knock out an unsuspecting victim, often with a single sucker punch. Serious injuries and deaths have been attributed to knockout.

ISSUE	DATE	TIME	DURATION	PROGRAM
Human Trafficking	December 4-5	7:00 & 11:30 AM	2 hours	Focus on the Family

On "Focus on the Family", we hear two programs entitled "Exposing the Dark World of Human Trafficking". There's no nice way to put this—human trafficking is modern day slavery, and it's happening in your own "backyard." Children are being bought and sold, but not in the way you might think. Learn some of the tactics abductors are using to lure even the smartest high school and college kids away from home—and how to make them safer.

ISSUE	DATE	TIME	DURATION	PROGRAM
The Spiritual Realm	December 4	2:05 PM	20:00	Priority Talk

Greg Davis talked to Dr. Jack Graham about his new book, "Unseen: Angels, Satan, Heaven, Hell, and Winning the Battle for Eternity." Behind every victory and every defeat, behind every blessing and every disappointment, spiritual forces are at work. In Unseen Dr. Jack Graham challenges popular opinions and persistent folklore with powerful biblical truth about heaven and hell, good and evil, and angels and demons, and he teaches us how to navigate this present world in light of the forces we cannot see.

Obamacare

Dr. David Prentice, FRC's Senior Fellow for Life Sciences, joined Tony to discuss the recent pro-life victory regarding stem cell research. Rep. Bill Johnson (R-Ohio) was on to talk about the security issues with the Obamacare website, as he is an expert in the field. Also, HSLDA Chairman Mike Farris, an attorney representing the Romeike family, joined Tony to discuss the latest on the family's situation. The Romeike family, who are evangelical Christians, have made headlines with their years-long struggle to homeschool their children. After fleeing Germany and arriving in the U.S. in 2008, the family had hoped to practice their faith and educate their children freely, but the U.S. government decided to deport Uwe and Hannelore Romeike and their six children.

Religious Freedom	December 11	2:35 PM	15:00	Priority Talk

Greg Davis talked Jeremy Dys from Liberty Institute about a case of blatant hostility to religion from Bulloch County, Georgia. Liberty Institute is representing teachers and staff of Georgia schools who have alleged "intimidation, discrimination, and even censoring of their religious liberty" by Bulloch County school district officials. Earlier this year, Americans United for Separation of Church and State (AUSCS) began complaining to the school district about perceptions of excessive religious expression by teachers and other staff. What ensued was apparently an atmosphere of fear and censorship.

Parenting/Family/Youth Culture	December 16	2:05 PM	15:00	Priority Talk

Greg Davis talked to Donna McKinley, the program's youth culture specialist. Donna talked about "affluenza." Attorneys for Texas teen Ethan Couch claimed that his "affluenza" meant he was blameless for driving drunk and causing a crash that left four people dead in June. Simply put, Couch, 16, claims that his condition stemmed from having wealthy, privileged parents who never set limits for him. Judge Jean Boyd sentenced him Tuesday to 10 years of probation but no jail time, saying she would work to find him a long-term treatment facility. But Eric Boyles, who lost his wife and daughter in the crash, said on CNN's "Anderson Cooper 360," "There are absolutely no consequences for what occurred that day. The primary message has to absolutely be that money and privilege can't buy justice in this country." Five civil lawsuits have been filed, including three lawsuits from the families of the four victims who were killed.

Helping the Homeless	December 18	2:35 PM	15:00	Priority Talk

Greg Davis talked to Bruce Boxleitner, star of the Christmas movie, "Silver Bells." When an ambitious businessman gets in a scuffle with a ref at his son's basketball game, he is suspended from his job and sentenced to community service -- manning a red kettle and ringing bells for the Salvation Army for the rest of the Christmas season. At first he finds this humiliating, and in his self-pity determines to be the world's worst bell ringer, but as he encounters the people behind the kettle, his life - and especially his relationship with his son - is changed by something as simple as ringing a bell. The Salvation Army has a presence in 126 countries, running charity shops, operating shelters for the homeless, and providing disaster relief and humanitarian aid to developing countries.

On “Focus on the Family”, we hear two programs entitled “Protecting Your Family from the Digital Invasion”. Technology is all around us. It helps us stay in tune with the rest of the world. But when does it get to be too much? On “Focus on the Family,” Drs. Arch Hart and Sylvia Hart Frejd explain how our digital devices are rewiring our brains, and what we can do to get control over our digital usage before it begins to control us.
